HE WEARS WELL.

General Grant Not the Least Affected by the Excitement of His Birthday.

Dr. Douglas Says the Patient Daily Grows Stronger and His Stomach More Natural.

Four Hundred and Fifty Children Die from Measles in New York City.

NOTE THE WORSE.

General Grant Stands the Excitement of His Birthday Night.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. New York, April 28.—Dr. Douglas yesterday felt some anxiety lest General Grant should become excessively weary with the undue excitement attending his birthday. That was the reason he called at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon; but when the physician left this morning he said the general was as well as yesterday and that he is daily growing stronger.

The general slept about 10 o'clock last night, but with intervals of wakefulness until between 3 and 4 a. m., when he fell into a natural slumber and thus continued without waking until nearly 8 o'clock.

THE MEASLES.

Raging as a Plague at New York.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. New York, April 28.—There have been 500 deaths of children in this city from measles since January 1st.

WASHINGTON.

The Dickson Trial. Other Notes of Interest from the National Capital.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—In the Dickson trial this morning, ex-Attorney-General Brewster was present and took the stand. He was asked to state what took place at his interview with Kennedy early in the star route trial. He said that Kennedy came and told him that Dickson wanted to talk to Kennedy about the star route trials and about what was going on in the jury room. He (Brewster) was indignant and told Kennedy not to dare to talk with the jury. It would be an outrage upon the government. The counsel for the defense objected on the ground that the witness was making a speech for the government and not giving testimony. After short colloquies, the court ruled that the narration of conversation was relevant. The witness proceeding said, he told Kennedy emphatically that he had no right to talk with Dickson and it would be criminal in him. He (Brewster) would report it to the court.

"Did Kennedy say anything at that interview about having been told by Brewster Cameron to talk with Dickson?"

"Not a word."

"The witness knew ex-Marshal Henry only as marshal of the court. He remembered an interview with him about the selection of a witness."

"State whether or not you told Henry that the county would hold him responsible if the defendants were not convicted?"

"Never a word. It would be an insult."

Mr. Smith, counsel for the defense, entered a vigorous objection. This witness was brought here to make an argument. A lively colloquy ensued between the counsel, court and witness. The former maintained that this witness was brought here, not to give testimony, but to make an argument before the jury. This proceeding was extraordinary and it was an outrage upon the defendant.

Mr. Brewster—"I am not to be treated here in this way, sir; I am not brought here to be insulted."

Mr. Smith produced a copy of a local newspaper containing an interview between the witness and Marshal Henry and reading from it asked if he told the marshal, "if this trial miscarries, censure falls upon you. You will never escape it as long as you live."

Mr. Brewster—"Never, I never did say that. I called upon him as an accused man. I told him that if it turned out that these talismen were put in there by him designally, why then he (Brewster) would see him punished and he (Henry) would never escape the consequences."

"Was there a stenographer concealed behind the screen?"

"There was no screen in the room?"

"Was there a stenographer present?"

"Yes, sir. He was in plain sight, as near to me and in as plain sight as is the clerk of the court now."

"Who was the stenographer?"

"Mr. York. I called at the department to get him to come here with me to-day, but found he was in the west taking testimony."

"Mr. Brewster, are you acquainted with Henry A. Bowen?"

"No, sir" (with great emphasis). "I never saw him but twice in my life."

The district attorney tried to inject an objection.

Witness—"I had rather answer. I have been assailed about that. I never had three minutes conversation with him in my life."

"Well, you appointed him to an office didn't you?"

"No, sir; the general agent appointed him. He selected him and Mr. Lincoln recommended him."

The court then stated that he could not permit the examination to proceed in that direction any further. So the witness was dismissed. The taking of evidence then closed. After the argument for the prosecution the defense submitted the case without argument. Judge McArthur then charged the jury. He said the material matter to be inquired into was whether the defendant made an attempt to corrupt the jury. The offense described in the indictment was the reading of a certain writing to the star route jury. The reading of the paper was admitted. Whether it was read with corrupt intent shall be determined by the circumstances. The jury retired, and after an absence of half an hour returned a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Dickson this afternoon entered suit against ex-Attorney-General Benjamin F. Brewster for libel, laying the damages at $5,000.

POSTAGE RATES.

The postmaster-general has issued a circular order to postmasters explaining the changes made by congress at last session in rates of postage. The postmasters are informed that on and after July 1st, the rate on all domestic first-class matter, including drop letters at letter carrier offices, will be two cents per ounce or fraction thereof, instead of two cents per half ounce. This change will apply to mail addressed to Canada but not to other foreign mails. To provide for the wants that may arise from the change in the rate on second class matter, or newspapers mailed by publishers from two cents to one cent per pound, the department has decided to issue a new paper and periodical stamp of the denomination of one cent, the design and color of which will be the same as those of the present series. They will be ready for issue on June 1st.

NOTES.

The president signified his intention of selecting the successor of Jno. Russell Young, United States minister to China, from California. Those factions of the Democratic party in that state have endorsed Frank McCapen, ex-state senator and ex-mayor of San Francisco, for the position.

The president today appointed James E. Clellan, of Florida, as surveyor general of the state of Florida, vice Wm. Hicks, not confirmed.

OOZING OUT.

Meager Particulars of Another Bloody

Battle Come from St. Petersburg and London.

The Russians Routed and Massacred by the Afghan Troops on the Herat Road.

Gladstone Says the News Has Not Been Confirmed, but is Generally Accepted.

THE RUMORS

Of Another Battle Between the Russians and Afghans Come in.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL. London, April 28.—The news of another battle, though not as yet confirmed, has greatly increased the danger of war.

The Times says: "The rumor is probably the first oozing out of news, which has been officially suppressed. At present only the Independent Belge and Daily News have received a report of the battle. It is presumed a body of Russians followed a body of retreating Afghans while scouting in the country for the purpose of collecting information and perhaps pushed to Chamenide, thus coming in contact with the Afghan troops on a direct route to Herat. At present there is nothing to show where the conflict occurred."

RUSSIA INSURED.

All the British merchantmen have been insured against war risks. During the last few days it has been reported that the whole Russian coast of the Baltic has been strongly fortified.

GERMANY NEUTRAL.

Berlin, April 28.—The National Zeitung says: "Germany remains neutral in the present crisis," adding that no request has been received for mediation. It also denies that the czar wrote the emperor of Germany that the chances for peace had diminished.

ORDERED INTO SERVICE.

SHERNESS, Eng., April 28.—Four torpedo boats, lying here, have been ordered into immediate service.

WHEAT BOSS UP.

London, April 28.—War news has caused an advance of four shillings per quarter in wheat in Kent. The total exports of produce from this port for the past week was $5,847,570.

EN ROUTE TO HERAT.

London, April 28.—A special from Tirpud, dated the 16th, says that the Russians occupy Aktepe and are actively at work making a military road from Penjleh to Herat.

GLADSTONE'S TALK.

London, April 28.—Gladstone stated in the house of commons this afternoon that the government had received no confirmation of the battle reported between the Russians and Afghans, with a victory for the latter.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

London, April 27.—The house of commons without discussion, as suggested by Mr. Gladstone, voted the entire credit of $5,000,000 asked by the government. Mr. Edward Temperley Gourley, a radical member for Sunderland, asked whether the government would endeavor to save a dispute with Russia by referring arbitration to the United States.

Mr. Gladstone answered, the government are quite sensible of their heavy responsibility to maintain the honor and good faith of the country on the one hand and on the other to use every means consistent with that honor to avoid war. I can give no more particular reply than this.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily News says: "I am informed on good authority of another engagement on the Afghan frontier. Of the 1,700 Russians who were engaged with the Afghans, nearly all were killed."

Mr. Gladstone's speech for the $5,000,000 credit was delivered with telling effect and the speaker was cheered both during his address and upon his leaving the house of commons. The opinion in the lobbies to-night is that Mr. Gladstone's speech shows that war is inevitable.

BRUSSELS, April 27.—The Independence Belgia, with authority under reserve, but from an excellent source, receives reports of a fresh battle between the Russians and Afghans in which the former were defeated and retired, having met with a heavy loss.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 27.—The Arabs kept up a desultory fire on the British troops at Otoo all night last night. Three British were wounded.

Killed in a Week.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

St. Louis, April 27.—A serious accident occurred on the Iron Mountain railway seventeen miles below the city between 1 and 2 this afternoon by which two persons were killed and several others injured. A special train consisting of a baggage car, Pullman sleeper and two directors cars, bearing a party of Texas & Pacific and Missouri Pacific railroad officials on a trip of inspection over the former road, collided with the Montezuma accommodation. Both trains were running pretty fast and came together on a sharp curve under a high cliff on the river bank. The crash was terrific and completely wrecked both locomotives but neither train was injured much. Both engineers and firemen went into the wreck with their engines. William Stevenson, engineer of the special, received a concussion of the spine and was hurt internally. His fireman, Louis Christ, has both legs torn off his chest and was crushed so that he died. John McGovern, engineer of the Montezuma train, was thrown into the river and was not hurt, and his fireman received only a slight injury.

Phillip Toland, nephew of General Wistar, of the Texas & Pacific road, and connected with the locomotive department of the Pennsylvania railroad, was riding on the engine of the special and was frightfully mangled, his leg being torn off, his chest crushed in, killing him instantly. The other members of the party were in the rear car and were somewhat shaken up, but most of the serious injuries were to Ex-Governor Brown, general solicitor of the Missouri Pacific, who had one shoulder dislocated. General Wistar was slightly hurt about the head.

The special train had the right of way, but owing to some misunderstanding of the train dispatcher, Mr. Burnes, the Montezuma train was not ordered to wait until the special had passed. An inquest on the body of Toland was held this evening, and Burnes was declared responsible for his death.

THEY GET TO WORK.

The Employees of the Kerr Murray Foundry Strike for a Ten Per Cent. Advance in Wages.

Yesterday a committee waited on Mr. A. D. Cressler, manager of the Kerr Murray foundry and machine works, and informed him the employees would no longer work unless the 10 per cent. cut in wages made last fall was restored. Mr. Cressler interviewed the men personally and found a majority of them firm in their demands. He then issued an order closing the foundry to-day and also stated that all who desired could resume work Wednesday at the present rates. Those who did not were asked to call at the office and get their pay. Mr. Cressler says he will not yield and the men are equally as firm. About 150 men are employed in the works and as they are among our best citizens, THE SENTINEL can say they will do nothing but lawful and gentlemanly.

Mr. Sullivan and the Telephone.

Mr. J. E. Sullivan, who was instrumental in putting the telephone bill through the legislature, has received numerous letters of congratulation since the adjournment of the general assembly, and also proffers of financial assistance in aid of the defense of the constitutionality of the new law. These offers range from $15 to $50 and in many of the leading towns, a subscription has already been started to that effect. It is Mr. Sullivan's purpose to look after the defense of the bill with the same energy characteristic of his work in the third house, and he is willing to wage $300, now on deposit in one of the banks, that if the supreme court sustains the bill the telephone managers will carry out the threat to remove all the telephones from the state.

That's a Relief.

E. B. Sweet yesterday examined a bundle of papers in his library and among them this interesting SENTINEL relief.

Received, Fort Wayne, Jan. 17, 1852, of Mr. H. Logan, two dollars, in full for SENTINEL one year, No. 29, Vol. 12 to No. 29, Vol. 13, January, 1852, to January, 1853.

Thomas Toole.

Mr. Tiger is the father of the Moores, John and Walt Tiger, of this city, and is remembered by the old citizens.

According to Statistien Index, the wheat last year weighed on an average 68.3 pounds per bushel against 56.9 pounds in 1883.

LOOSE TRICK.

The Americans Outwitted by the French.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. New York, April 28.—A special to the Tribune from Panama, dated the 27th, says: "The French influence is supreme here. The French boast that a protest from Paris caused the American troops to leave the city. An American bark captured by the rebels has been retaken by the Alliance and sent to Colon. Ruise and sixty insurgents are on board."

ABANDONED.

Troops Ordered to Withdraw from Wady Halfa.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL. ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—The government troops are returning here. Orders have been received to withdraw.

CAIRO, April 28.—Orders have been issued for the withdrawal of all troops from Wady Halfa.

A Terrible Crime.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. CONCORDIA, Ohio, April 28.—A shocking crime was committed here Sunday night. Adolph Hess took an axe and severed the head of his child from its body, then beat his wife on the head until she died. Hess then hung himself to a rafter. When found all the bodies were stiff.

CHICAGO, April 28.—11 a. m.—Notwithstanding the rather exciting tenor of foreign dispatches, trading has been unusually tame, the reason assigned is that to-morrow is a holiday to celebrate the formal occupancy of the new building. By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. INDIANAPOLIS, April 27. In Wayne township, this county, last night, John Bridges was fatally shot by Perry Tomlinson.
